SLOVENIA

Location: Slovenia is in central Europe, bordering Austria in the north, Hungary in the north-east, Croatia in the south and south-east, and Italy and the Adriatic Sea in the west.

Capital: Ljubljana

Population: 2,000,000

Total Area: 20,273 sq km

People per sq km: 95

Language: Slovenian, but most speak English, German or Italian.

Currency: Euro (€)

Slovenia is pretty small really - it's only about half the size of Switzerland.

It is tucked away within a mountainous region in central Europe, which makes its countryside good for all kinds of outdoor sports, including skiing and hiking, as well as being a good place to visit in the summer. It has relatively cold winters, but warm summers too.

There are only around 2 million people living in Slovenia. And only 97 people live per sq km, which is much less than most of the other European countries.

People have been living in Slovenia since the Stone Age. The first settlement in Slovenia was by their Slovak ancestors in the sixth century.

Slovenia has 46.6 km of coastline on the Adriatic Sea. The highest mountain is called Mount Triglav, and it is 2,863 meters, or 9,393 feet high. The Slovenes grow a lot of grapes, mostly for wine.

The largest cave in Europe, called the Postojna Caves, can be found in Slovenia.

HOW TO GET TO SLOVENIA

You can travel to Slovenia by plane, train, bus or car.

AIRPORT:

Main airport in Slovenia is airport Ljubljana. For local travel, there are taxi services and public transportation available from the airport.

Distances between Laško and closest airports:

Airport Ljubljana: 90 km

Airport Zagreb: 95 km

Airport Graz: 120 km

Airport Ronchi dei Legionari, Trieste: 213 km

TRAIN:

Slovenia has good railway connections. You can travel directly to Laško, as it has its own railway station.

BUS/CAR:

There are highways connecting Slovenia with neighbor countries and there is a highway net spread all over Slovenia. You can easily get to Celje, which is 10 km north of Laško.

COMPETITION AND REGISTRATION

SLOVENIA Open has a long-going tradition, hosting competitions of K1 of the highest ranks.

The competition will take place in the Tri Lilije Sports Hall, located in Laško. The hall can accept up to 3000 spectators.

The hall is located 500 m from the official accommodations.

Taking place in the scenic town of Laško, competitors can also enjoy in sightseeing and amenities offered by Zdravilišče Laško.

REGISTRATION

All competitors must register online using the online system on:

www.e-karate.si

In case of any questions concerning the online registration, please contact the e-karate software team directly via the email address:
